

DCFPI Welcomes Doni Crawford to Our Team!

By DCFPI Staff

The DC Fiscal Policy Institute welcomes Doni Crawford, our newest Policy Analyst! Doni is excited to dive into affordable housing and workforce development policy, with a focus on issues affecting communities of color and low-income residents.

Prior to joining DCFPI, Doni worked at Neighborhood Allies where she co-led the implementation of All-In Pittsburgh, a collaborative regional strategy that shapes policies to achieve equitable development—ensuring that everyone participates in and benefits from the region's economic transformation. She also led strategic planning for the organization and co-managed a grants program that intentionally invests in historically divested neighborhoods in Pittsburgh.

Doni earned her Master of Public and International Affairs (MPIA) at the Graduate School of Public and International Affairs and Bachelor of Arts (BA) in Political Science and Hispanic Languages and Literatures from the University of Pittsburgh.

Doni enjoys a good book, political TV dramas and tweeting – follow her here!

Please join us in welcoming Doni!
